HOSPITALITY SERVICE

Amassi is a company passionately dedicated to the art of creating memorable and unique food in the UAE. By establishing our own distinct connection between food and art, we take great care in every aspect of catering events - providing exceptional cuisine complemented by imaginative, sophisticated, 5-star presentation for all manner of occasions. We aim to be the friendliest, most approachable and knowledgeable catering organisation in the Middle East. We listen to our client's needs and understand how to enhance the concept to make an event truly unforgettable.

Good food is our passion, and we use only the freshest ingredients within the most creative dishes, presented with elegance and grace.

Amassi takes the art of catering to a new level!

We Understand Your Culture

Our expertise in catering extends across every cuisine, and every culture. As an international, multi-cultural organisation, we are proud to be able to offer a wide range of food for all tastes. From regional specialities to international cuisine, from Oriental to South American, we cook with passion.

We are inspired by the cosmopolitan, welcoming nature of the UAE, and our flexibility, understanding and expertise in preparing the right kind of food and the perfect ambience for the event is a reflection of that.

Highest Quality Standards

Amassi is dedicated to quality throughout our business from the very first time you meet with us, to accomplishing delivery of the perfect occasion.

We only accept the highest standards in our preparation and our presentation, and this is exhibited in our HACCP certification. Our staff are continuously trained on all aspects of food preparation and hygiene, and we follow and adhere to the international standards for kitchen cleanliness and maintenance.

Our commitment to quality also incorporates our suppliers, each of whom have a reputation for providing the freshest produce in town, whether poultry, fish, meat or the finest vegetables, herbs and spices. We have long-term relationships with the finest providers of healthy produce, and they each have standards comparable to our own.

Hospitality Industry Experience for more than 20 Years

The Amassi Executive Chef and his team have served within the international hospitality industry for more than 20 years, working with some of the most illustrious names in food. They benefit from the highest levels of training, creativity and passion for their art – with an expertise in every international cuisine and culture. This same level of dedication and expertise is tangible throughout the Amassi team, and from the moment you speak to us about your event needs, you will receive the same friendly, warm and welcoming service.

We are recognised for our adaptability, our attention to detail, and our eagerness to go the extra mile for our clients. Our approach is collaborative, and collective, and is based upon years of experience working closely with a variety of diverse clients and cultures with different demands.

Home from Home

Hospitality and generosity are time-honoured traditions in the Arab world, and it is beautifully prepared and flavoursome home-cooked food that is the hallmark of our culture for receiving guests.

Each Amassi dish is prepared to taste and look as though it comes straight from a grandmother's kitchen. The wholesome essence and special combination of flavours are created to take our guests on a journey back to a simpler time, when families and friends ate and enjoyed home-cooked cuisine together.

The Artistic Journey from Start to Magnificence

From the moment you pick up the phone and dial our number, you will receive a service and begin a journey that is uniquely 'Amassi'.

We first listen to your needs and arrange for a meeting to take place, where we can explore and review your ideas and requirements and give some inspiration and suggestions of our own. We will then go away and work as a team to provide you with the perfect event concept – from food, to presentation, to event management. We leave no stone unturned in our pursuit of providing you with an occasion to treasure.

Our target is to bring your ideas to life, and to leave you assured that in us you have the right company to manage your event from start to finish.

The art of great catering is delivered not only with the food, it's the service, the presentation and the personal touches unique to the occasion...

We Manage All Your Occasions

Whether a large wedding or a small, intimate affair, we go the extra mile to exceed our clients' expectations and to produce a menu that mirrors the spirit of the occasion, priced competitively, and delivered with expertise and passion.

We also provide an artistic dimension not usually associated with a catering company, and our passion for presentation has seen us provide ice sculptures, magnificent floral arrangements and splendid décor as part of our service and commitment to the realisation of a complete dining experience.

We have created memorable events for:

Anniversaries - Weddings - Birthday events - Farewell parties - Graduation parties - Social private functions - Corporate lunches - Student lunches - Corporate gatherings.

Our services are founded upon the belief that our exquisite food deserves a presentation, ambience and service of the same standard. The lengths we go to achieve this know no bounds, and can include artistic features, themed presentations and displays all conceptualised to work in harmony with our wonderful food.
